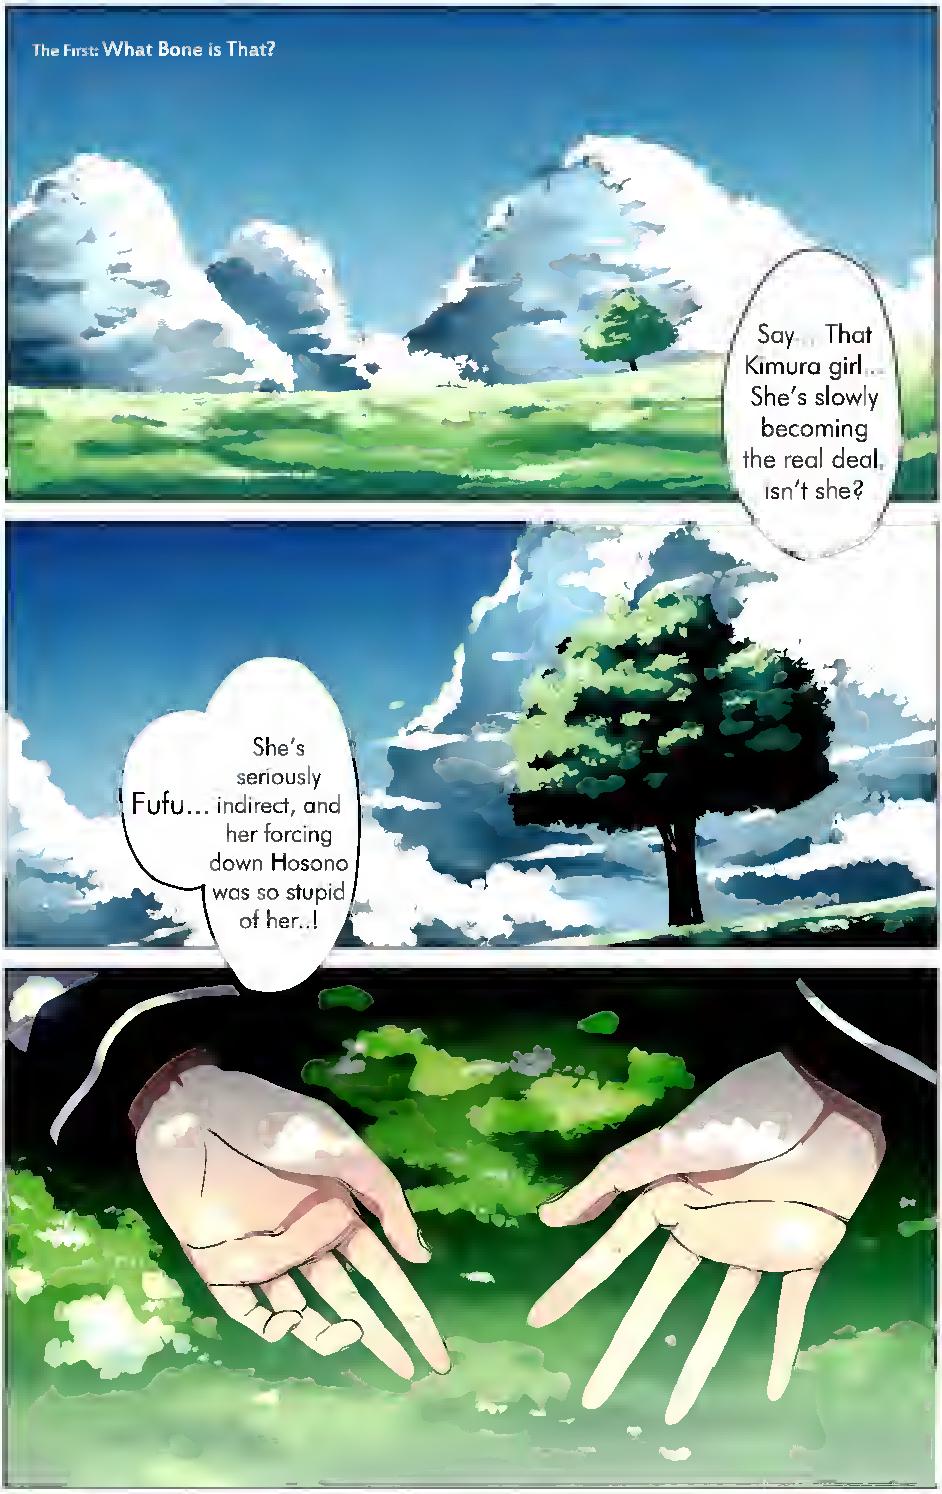
The First: What Bone is That? 3

The Second: Shounen Knife ① 75

The Second: Shounen Knife ② 117

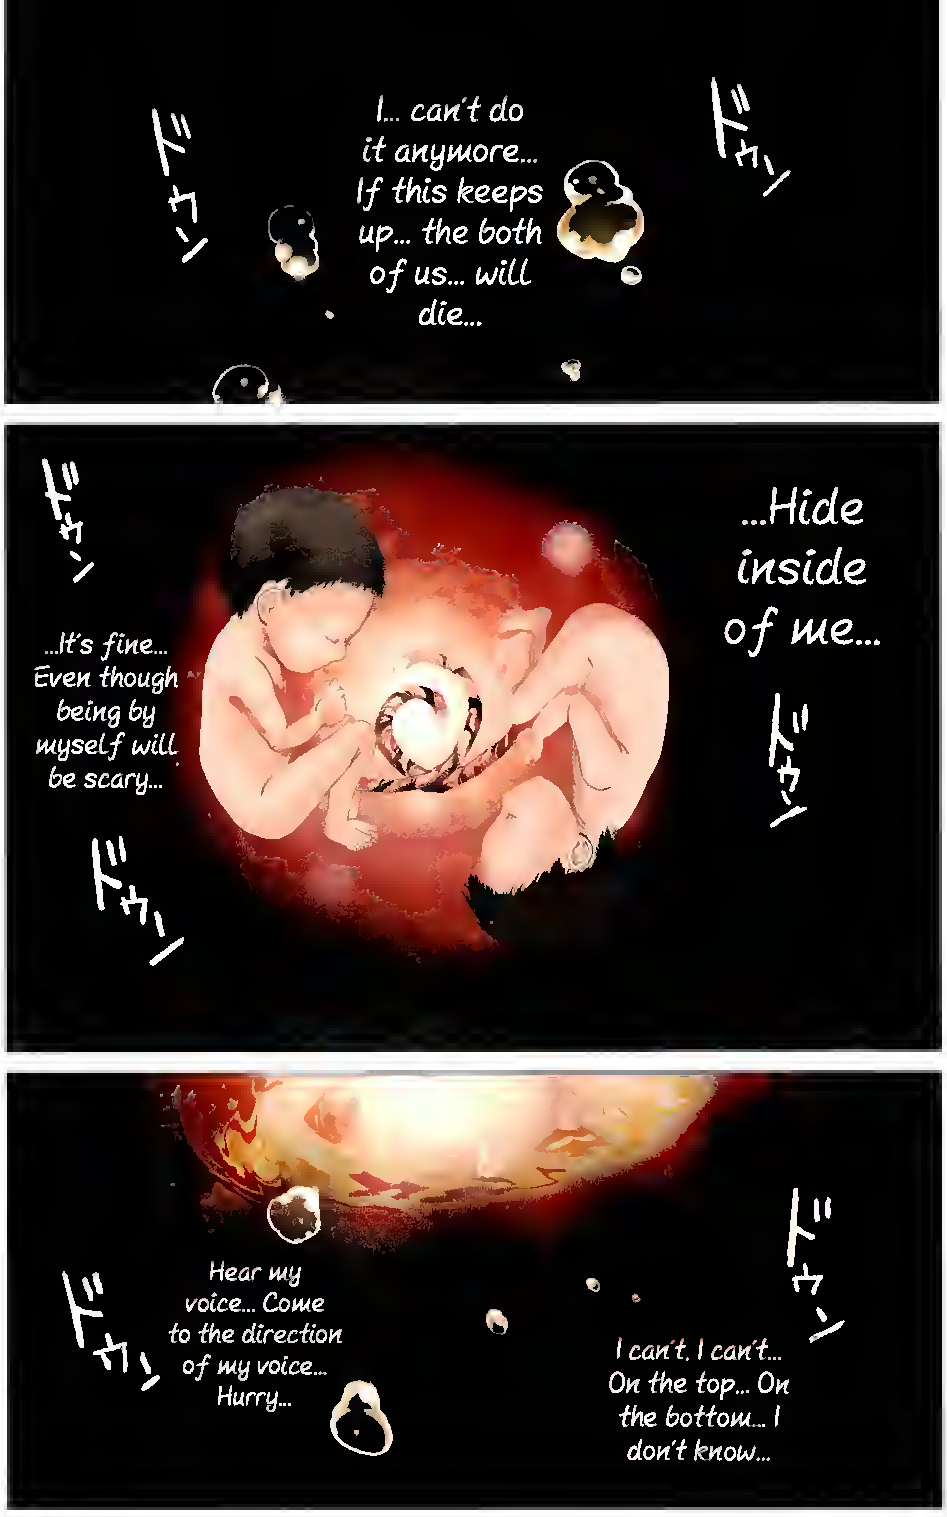


Say... That Kimura girl... She's slowly becoming the real deal, isn't she?
Fufu... She's seriously indirect, and her forcing down Hosono was so stupid of her..!

Bwahaha!
That Kimura backed away... And thinking about that idiot's weight, haha..!
Meh... It wasn't really that awkward, but that big mouth of mine opened and accidentally laughed out loud!
The class was already in uproar!
Kimura cried, so Hosono held back his arm and his face turned pale! He tried to tell them that he was perfectly fine!
Mmm!
Mmhmm...

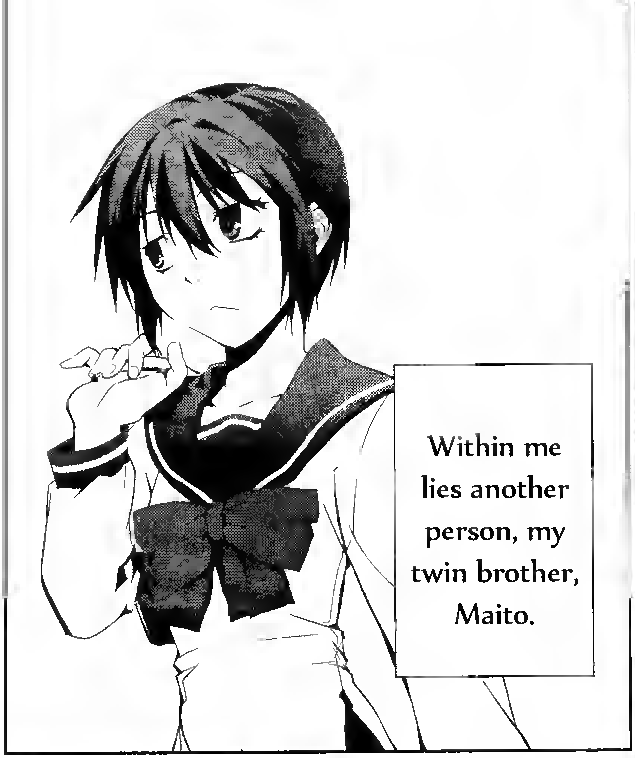
And then...
...It looked like Toono accidentally saw and was absolutely shocked..!
This is my first time seeing Houdzuki's smile just now... That smile is really cute, isn't it...

It's okay, Maika... It's only this...

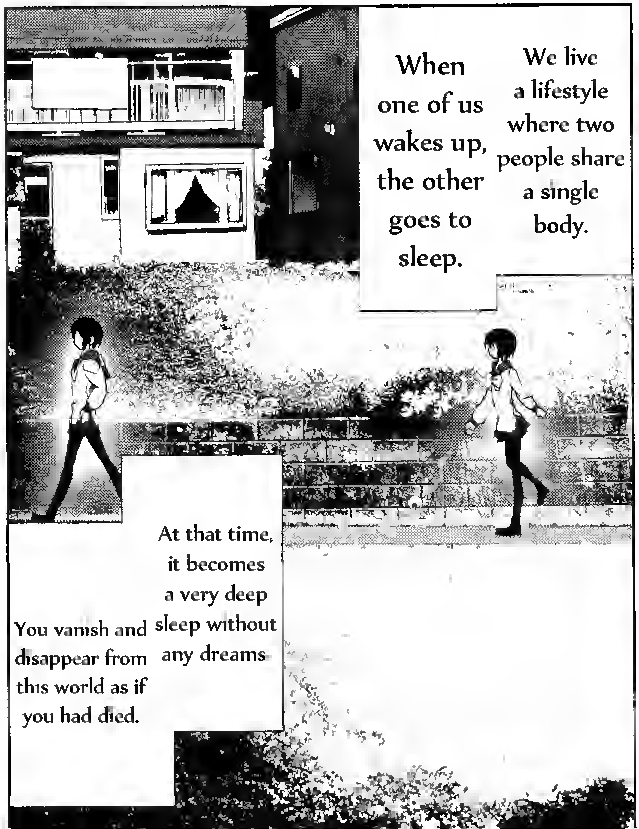


I... can't do it anymore... If this keeps up... the both of us... will die...
...It's fine... Even though being by myself will be scary...
...Hide inside of me...
Hear my voice... Come to the direction of my voice... Hurry...
I can't. I can't... On the top... On the bottom... I don't know...

Again... It's
the same place
as always...



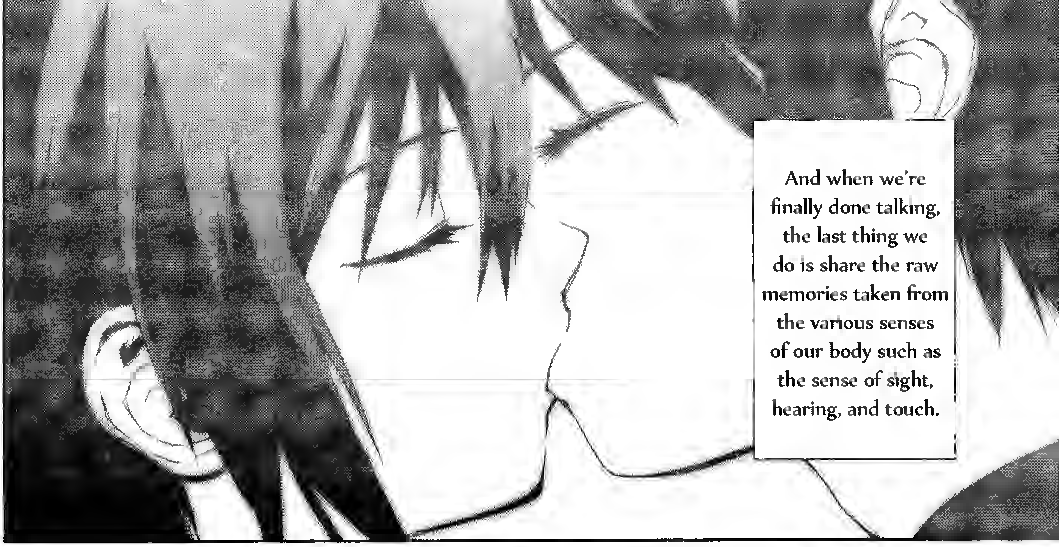
Within me lies another person, my twin brother, Maito.



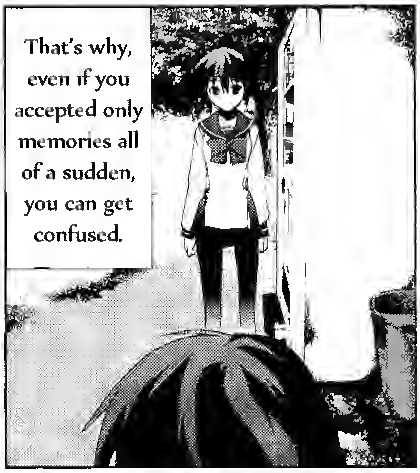
When one of us wakes up, the other goes to sleep.
We live a lifestyle where two people share a single body.
At that time, it becomes a very deep sleep without any dreams
You vanish and disappear from this world as if you had died.

My name is Houdzuki Maika.

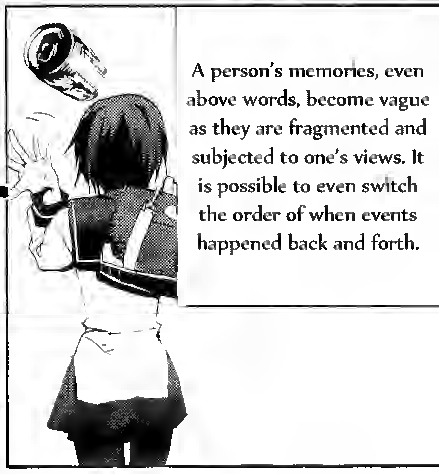
...When I slip into an afternoon nap until dusk, and Maito wakes up and is here from then on
And as for Sunday, I'm here from the morning until two o'clock
I'm here every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, while Maito is here for every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday.
Our real body enters a state of sleep where we lose consciousness and the two of us then reside within the same dream
In there, the one who was awake talks and chats about all the occurances up until that point to the one who was sleeping



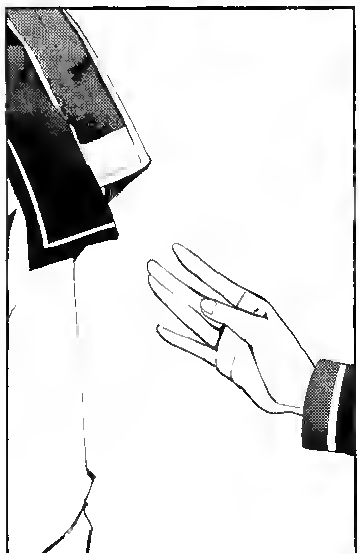
And when we're finally done talking, the last thing we do is share the raw memories taken from the various senses of our body such as the sense of sight, hearing, and touch.

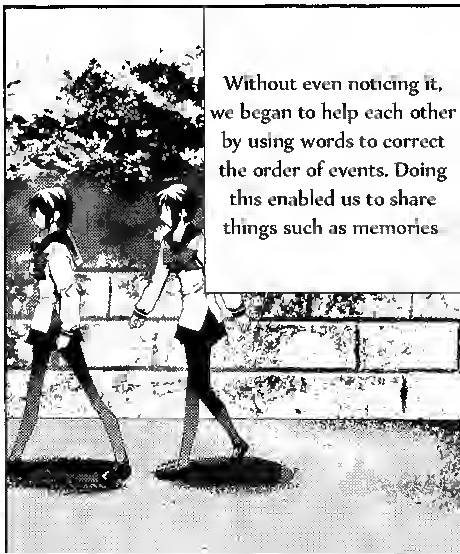


That's why, even if you accepted only memories all of a sudden, you can get confused.

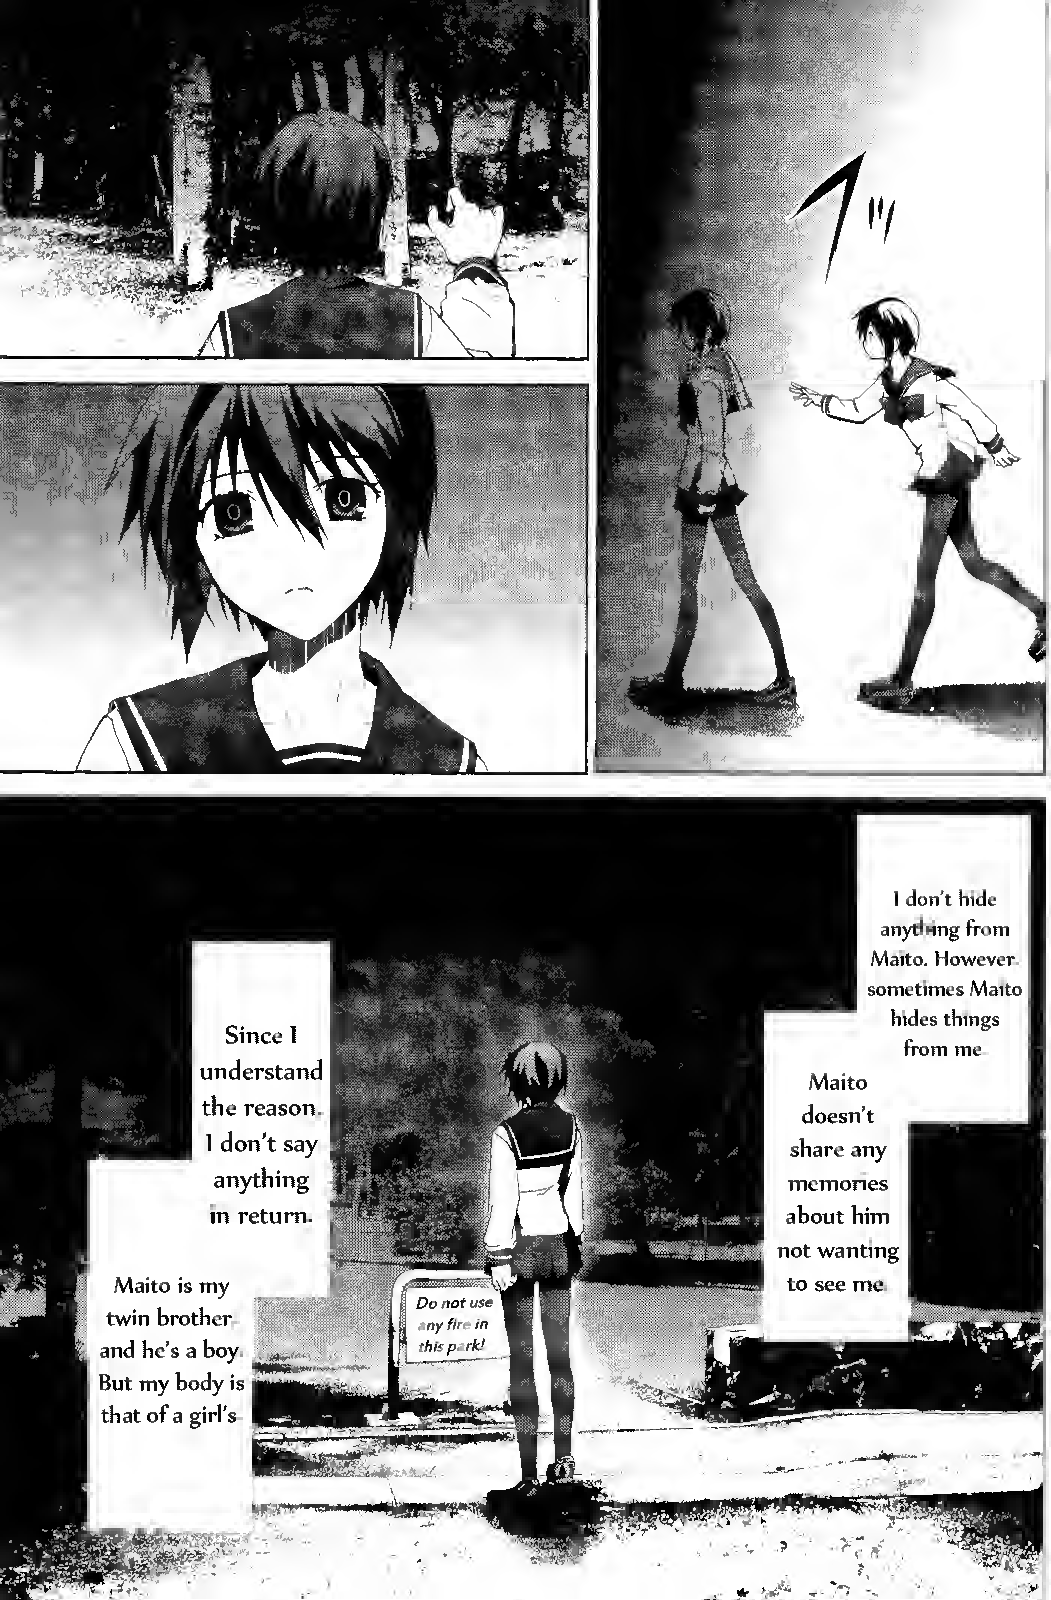


A person's memories, even above words, become vague as they are fragmented and subjected to one's views. It is possible to even switch the order of when events happened back and forth.





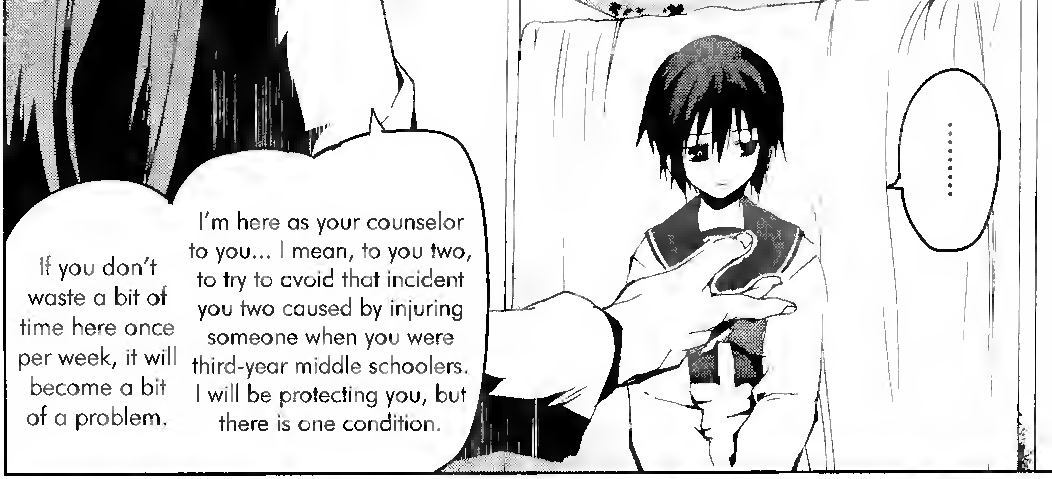
Without even noticing it, we began to help each other by using words to correct the order of events. Doing this enabled us to share things such as memories



Maito is my twin brother and he's a boy. But my body is that of a girl's.
Since I understand the reason, I don't say anything in return.
I don't hide anything from Maito. However, sometimes Maito hides things from me.
Maito doesn't share any memories about him not wanting to see me.
Do not use any fire in this park!

...Toono's late again, huh...? He really has a bad habit for not showing up for the class at one o'clock, doesn't he? Well, nothing I can do about that
...And Toono is...
1-1
E-Erm... Kimura is under house arrest for a punishment, and Hosono is in the hospital...
And Houdzuki Maika...
Ahh... You mean the other day, right?
CHESS

Hmm.. You've improved, haven't you, Eddy?
Kanbana-sensei, about that... When will this be over with? My one o'clock lesson has already started.
Stalling a little longer will look like you're having some serious counseling, so you'll be fine.
Okay! Checkmate!
You Win!
Kanbana-sensei, starting next week, can't you change the counseling time to after school?
If I made it after school, there is the potential that, someway or another, that other person's face won't show himself



I'm here as your counselor to you... I mean, to you two, to try to avoid that incident you two caused by injuring someone when you were third-year middle schoolers. I will be protecting you, but there is one condition.
If you don't waste a bit of time here once per week, it will become a bit of a problem.

...That wasn't Maito's fault in any way...

At least until that injured person recovers, you shoul-
That...

So the name of the aggressive person you are talking about is "Maito," is it?
Is that right?

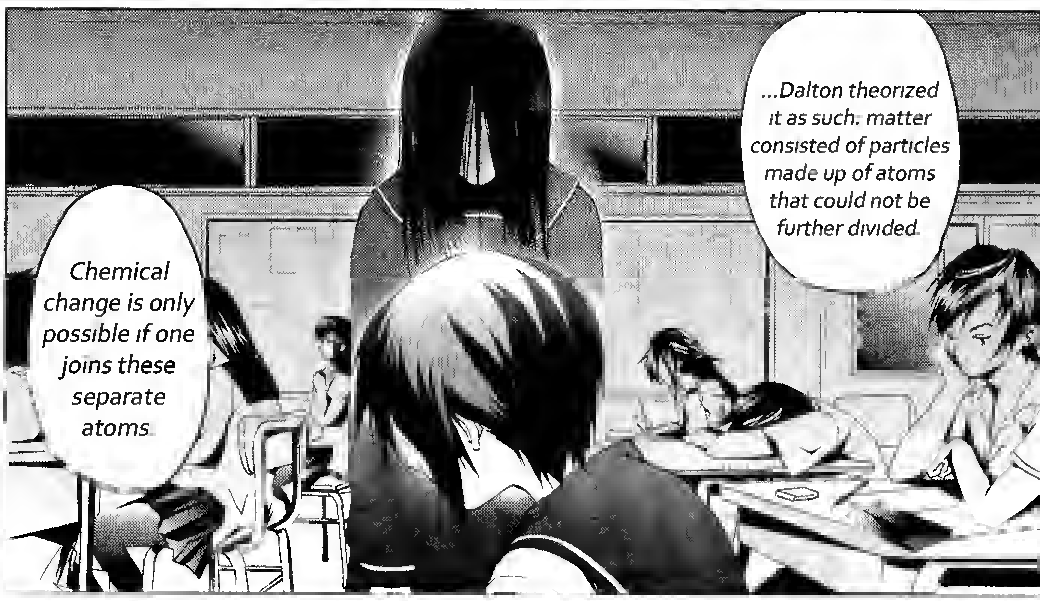
Sometimes I will see things that if I ever see them, they will prevent me from moving on
However that's all it is. Stay still, lower your breathing and let them pass peacefully Before you know it, they vanish and you return to the real world where you can't see them

The rule is, never look at their mouths. If you're not careful, the words said by these things will be forced into your head.

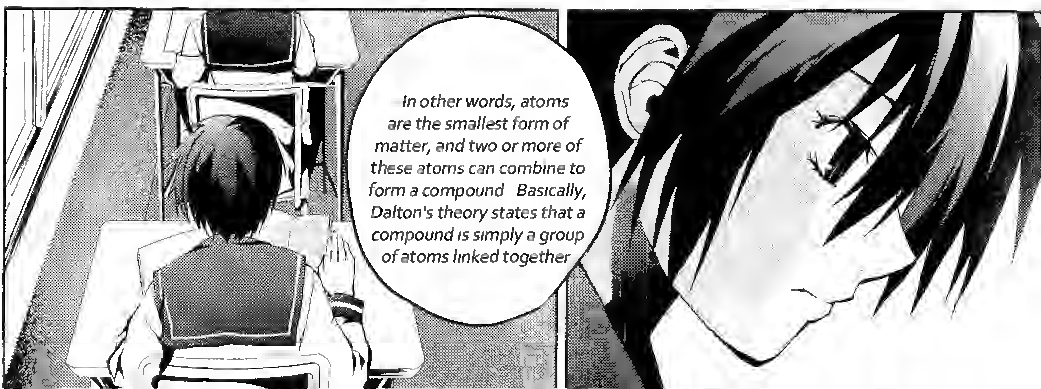
Houdzuki...

C-Cold...
My head...
It hurts...
U-Ugh..!

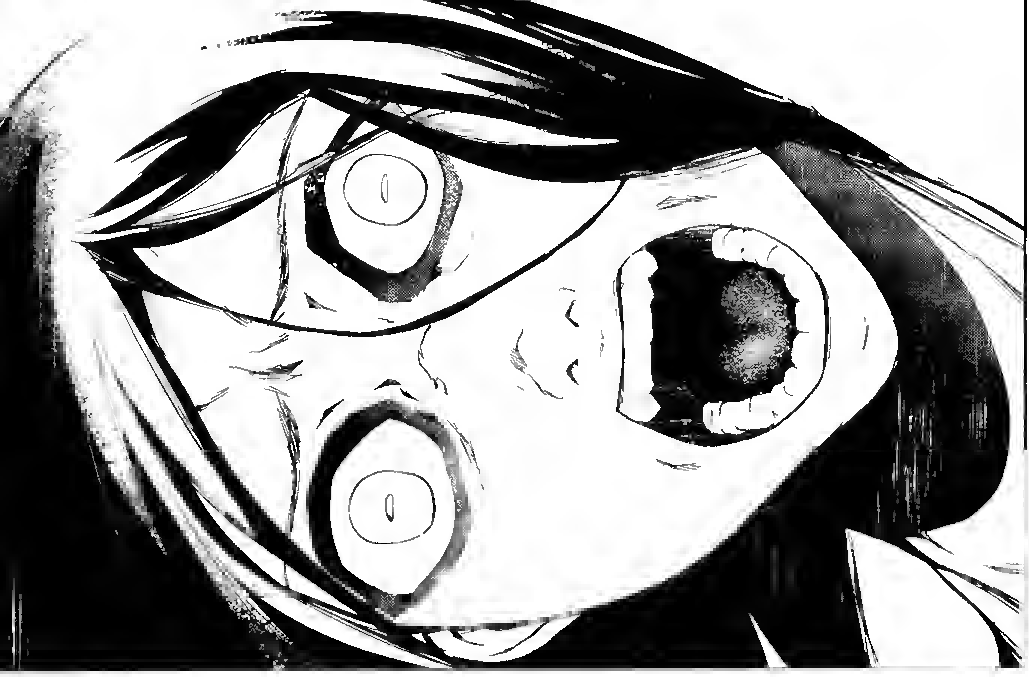
1-1
The discovery of Ancient Greek atomic theory began in the 19th century.
Further explanation of the atomic theory is helpful when trying to clarify this type of chemical phenomenon

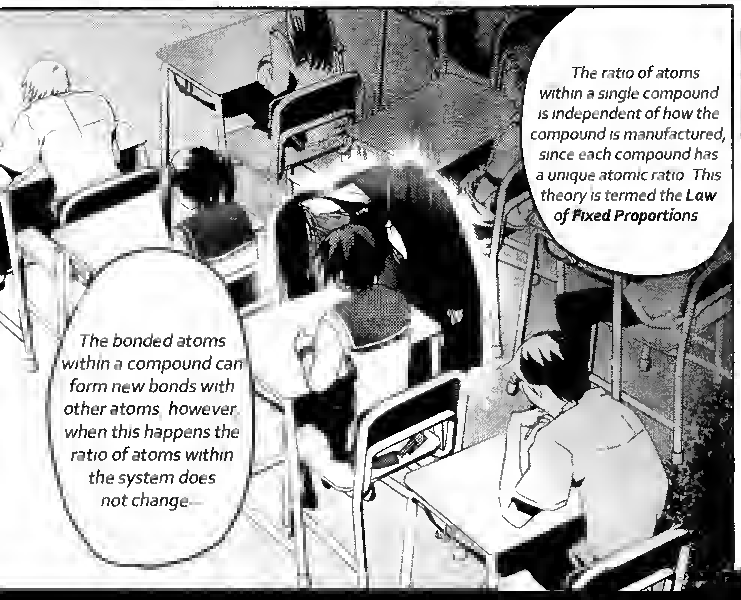


...Dalton theorized it as such: matter consisted of particles made up of atoms that could not be further divided.
Chemical change is only possible if one joins these separate atoms.



In other words, atoms are the smallest form of matter, and two or more of these atoms can combine to form a compound. Basically, Dalton's theory states that a compound is simply a group of atoms linked together.





The ratio of atoms within a single compound is independent of how the compound is manufactured, since each compound has a unique atomic ratio. This theory is termed the Law of Fixed Proportions
The bonded atoms within a compound can form new bonds with other atoms, however when this happens the ratio of atoms within the system does not change—

Excuse me... I can't see the blackbaard...

Mmkay, take off your shirt.
Are you really a counselor? I don't need the medical examination, so just give me some medicine for my headache.
My regular job is being this school's doctor. I coincidentally have a doctor's license as well.
Rest assured. I'm totally straight. Unless of course, if you're saying that you're gay and for some reason you can't stop thinking about me, then I guess I'll take that into consideration.
Am I wrong?

Chest: The ashes and bones from the incinerator are buried in a hole in the schoolyard.

What does this have to do with Houdzuki?
I see... Houdzuki Maika, right?
Eh?
Ah, just a little while back, I saw Houdzuki running in front of the shoe rack...
. What did you say your name was?
That is also part of it. I will proceed and check this out a little. Tomorrow, in order for you to come to the infirmary first if you are attending class...
Toono Kuuya.
It's "Too" written like ten, "no" written like a field, "Kuu" written like an opening, and "ya" written like family.
Toono Kuuya

Have you heard about how my name originated?
My older sister's name was Akiho.
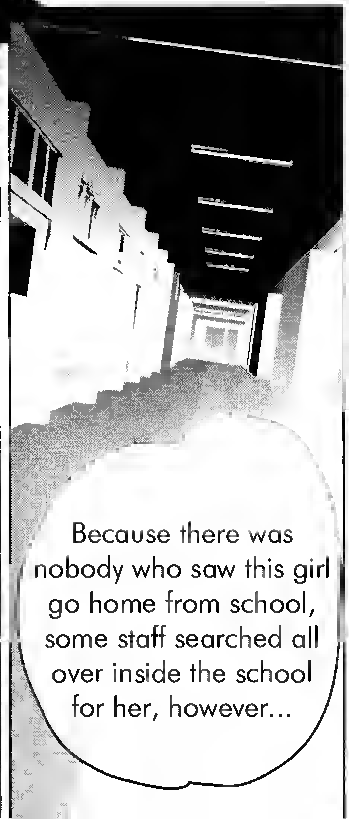
So it felt like my old man wanted mine to be "Akiya."
However, my mother was opposed to it, and at the end of that huge fight, only my old man's idea for the kanji remained
I see. They seemed to be the kind of parents that knew how to joke around.
Ahh...
They... were.

Tuesday
These servants stole footsteps like geckos, finally ascending to the top-most step of these steep flight of stairs, while taking caution to creep carefully while doing so
And, while trying as best they could to flatten those bodies of theirs...
...And as well as trying their best with their necks to poke out in front of them, they timidly tried peeking within the tower
...Nevertheless, someway or another, the discovery showed a situation in which there were both naked and kimono-wearing corpses within

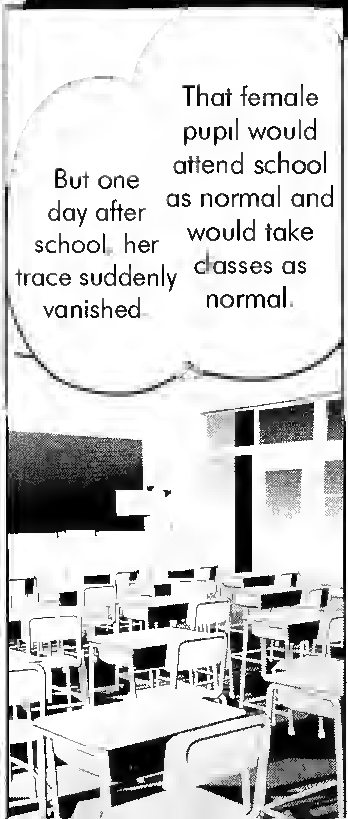
Of course, within the tower was evidence of male and female associations. Also, it is said that those corpses, long ago, used to be living human beings. However, doubtful of even just this single fact...
...They were like puppets that plowed and cultivated soil...
...They stretched our their arms and opened their mouths to talk, lazily lying about on the floor.
The thing we dug up in the schoolyard since after school yesterday until all throughout the night—
...It turned out to be this.

What does that have to do with me?
Up until now, just how much do you think this has costed us? Once again, filling up this hole has costed us the exact same!
Correct!
Could this be... a cat..?
Yesterday, when you were switching places, Toono Kuuya came by here.
After Toono happened to see you walk by...
...He suddenly got the chills and had a headache, and he came to complain to me.
When he took off his shirt, it was there from his chest to his stomach. Earthworm swells that looked like somebody used their nails to claw it on rose to the surface.
Toono...

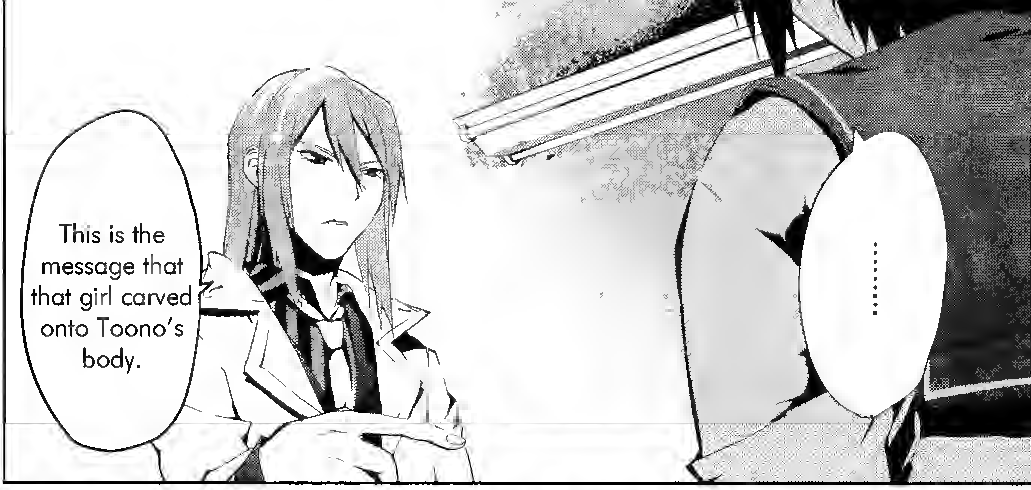
From now until almost 20 years ago, a female pupil within this school went missing.



Because there was nobody who saw this girl go home from school, some staff searched all over inside the school for her, however...



But one day after school, her trace suddenly vanished.
That female pupil would attend school as normal and would take classes as normal.



This is the message that that girl carved onto Toono's body.

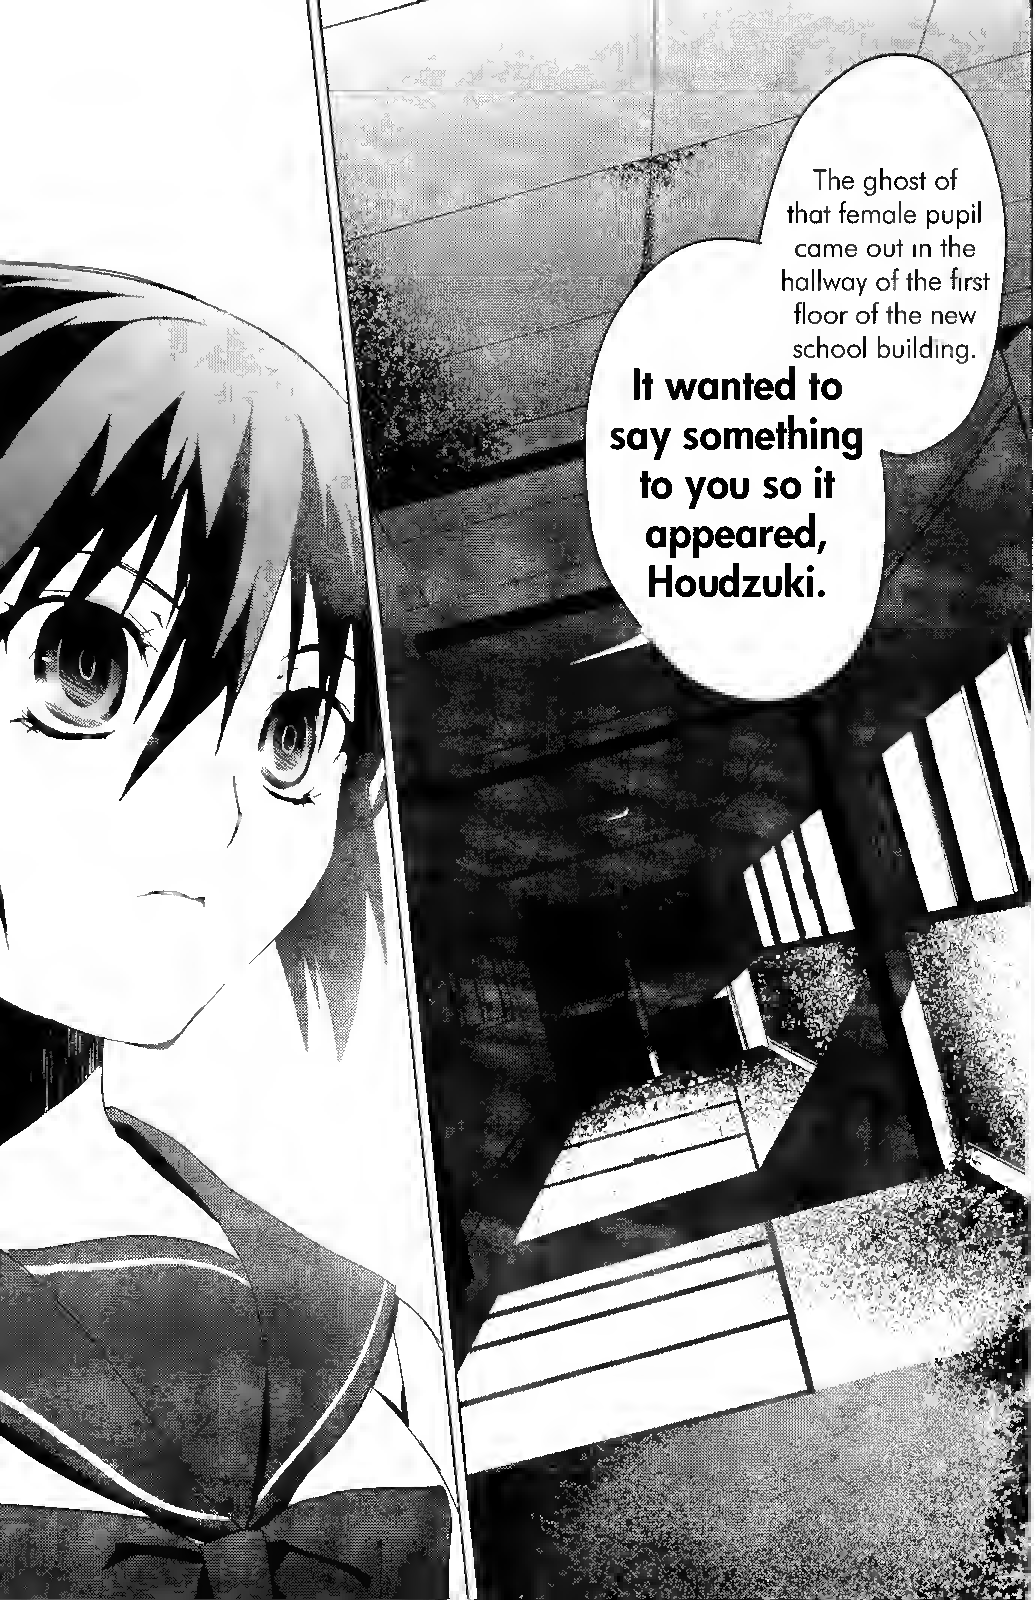
"The oshes ond bones from the incinerotor ore buried in o hole in the schoolyord."

What does that have to do with me?



The ghost of that female pupil came out in the hallway of the first floor of the new school building.
It wanted to say something to you so it appeared, Houdzuki.

Toono was just the one who incidentally got hit.
Why...
No...
Have you heard of this term before?
"Spiritualism."
Thase wha have that kind af accupatian are knawn as "Spiritualists."
It allows you to synchronize your own feelings with the dead.
Yau can draw farth the wards caming fram the dead, appearing as a vaice that yau can taste.

Before I became this school's doctor, my original occupation was being a Spiritualist.
So because Kanbana-sensei was a "Spiritualist," you were okay with listening to that ghost's words!
Kanbana-sensei...
...Can you see them too..?
.....
Though at any rate, if you cannot synchronize a dead and a living person's feelings into one, then the deceased's words cannot be received.
That female pupil from the hallway refused to synchronize her feelings with me. It's possible that if I had embraced those feelings of hers, I probably wouldn't have been able to understand them.

The bones of thot ghost ore olso buried somewhere within this school, aren't they..?
...So what do you think? Don't you have any intention on helping out with being a Spiritualist and finding the bones of that female pupil? Houdzuki Maito.
Probably.
Right now, there isn't any possibility that there will be any injuries, so even if you left it as it is, there wouldn't be an issue, however...

You...
...You can read my mind completely, can't you?

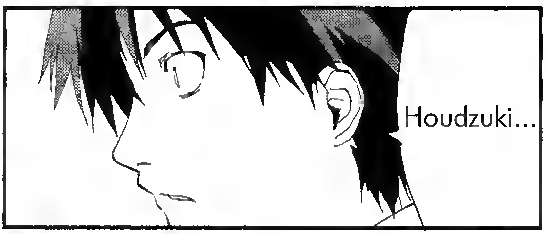
...It seems like a good idea to just go home for the day...
ギョ!
Eh?! Eh?! Is this some kinda photoshoot?!
Y-You're probably a lost child, huh... E-Erm... Can you speak Japanese?
ニコニコ

Over there, you can find the way!
(If you go over there, there will be somebody you can speak English to)
A-Ack ack a-ack ack!! W-What the heck..?!
Eh..?
Why me?! Why why why me?! Whyyy?!
My pronunciation? Was my pronunciation off?!

I'm begging you... Could somebody please explain the situation to me..?

Just what the hell did you decide to do with Houdzuki?!

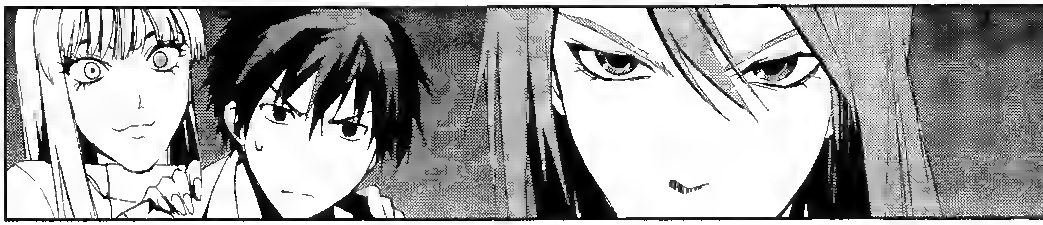


Houdzuki...

"Spiritualism."

Spiritualism...

ス



Houdzuki!!
The strange one is you! This doesn't look welcoming at all!!
How strange... It doesn't look welcoming in the least bit...

Where the hell are you, bitch?! Hey! Hurry and show your face already! You damn evil spirit!
Heh! This ain't no greeting!

Wait... Houdzuki... You... Could it be..?
!?
Turns out I really can't see it at all!
Oh! I thought maybe it'd work so I tried joining in to test!

Well, I guess I just don't get what this spiritualism thing is!
Right, Kanbana-sensei?
Hitting one or two evil spirits isn't very adult-like at all!
"Right," my ass!!

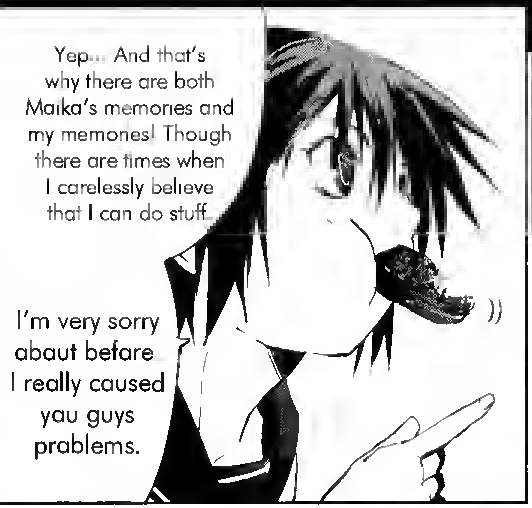
Evacuate!
Run for it!!

Wha...
What?!

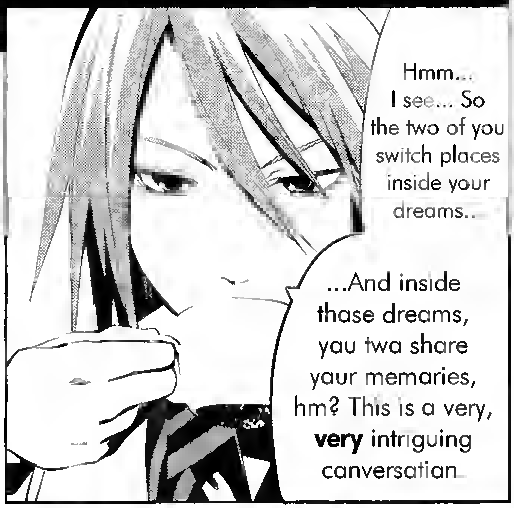
Uwaa..!
ぐだん
……

Uwaaa!! Unbelievable! She seriously went wayyy overboard, that evil spirit...
...Who are you?!
INFIRMARY
Body. The word "bone" spammed all over it
Allow me to introduce. This girl as of today will be working in this school as the school doctor's assistant. Erm... She's called Jane-kun. Please treat her well.
I don't know where I should butt myself into anymore...
You okay, Toono-kun? You don't look hurt though?
That's why I'm asking, just who are you?!

The ashes and bones from the incinerator are buried in a hole in the schoolyard.

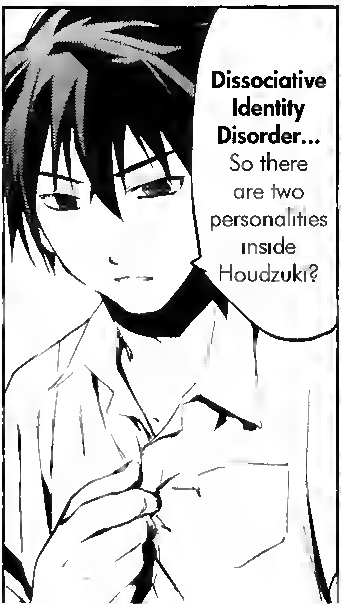


Yep... And that's why there are both Maika's memories and my memories! Though there are times when I carelessly believe that I can do stuff.
I'm very sorry about before I really caused you guys problems.



Hmm... I see... So the two of you switch places inside your dreams...
...And inside those dreams, you two share your memories, hm? This is a very, very intriguing conversation.

Yeah... But our situation isn't a sickness though. Maika might be a bit pessimistic, but apart from that, we don't have any other symptoms.



Hey.
You sit too. Have some tea.
It's a good thing that you're still in great shape!
That, and Maito's a bit aggressive.
That being said... I was the one who suffered the most damage though
A-Ah...
Ah.
Houdzuki...

I've been thinking about it for a while since that moment, but...
What is it?
...In addition, this extremely moody ghost can really get angered to that extent... Trying to persuade her is going to be very difficult.
For example, Houdzuki Maika als-
Anyways, thanks to Toono's hard work, we managed to survive without problems, however...
And why do you think that?
Why..? Well hmm... It's not really anger or anything, but I think she probably just feels sad.
This bone thing... Aren't those "cat bones" we dug up from the schoolyard probably enough?

Alright then, so where did that female pupil vanish off to?
Yeah... It's a little uncomfortable recalling it. I am talking about the premise for why somebody would kill and bury a missing female pupil.
You mean the time when...
...your body was clawed by nails?
That I don't know. However, if any staff within the schaal was invalved, he ar she cauld've easily, say, driven a car and taken her away without anybody seeing Hm... That's true.
That's why...
If we went as a group, that damn chick will probably get angry again, so I think that I'll just go myself this time.
That... Weren't you the one who angered her though..?
Mmm... Well if anything occurs, I'll quickly jump in and handle the situation.
Weren't you the one who ran away first though ?
...Maybe it'd be okay if we just brought her those "cat bones!"

Danger!
Scattered
Glass Pieces!
Keep Out!!

……
ペチン

Yo. Here I am.
Here. The thing we dug up from the schoolyard following your message from before.
These "cat bones."

Yep, yep. Yeah... You did great, Houdzuki...

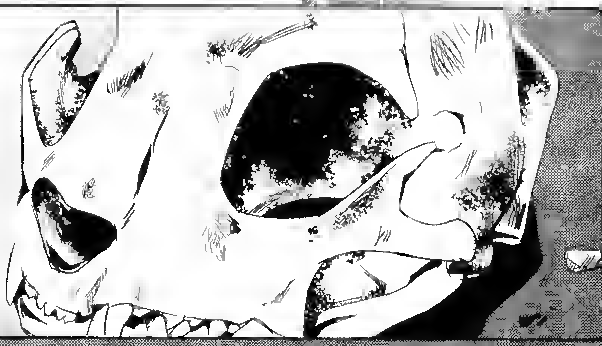
Thank you...

Nyaa..!

Her presense... It's gone...
That's right...

...I really am like a ghost, aren't I..?

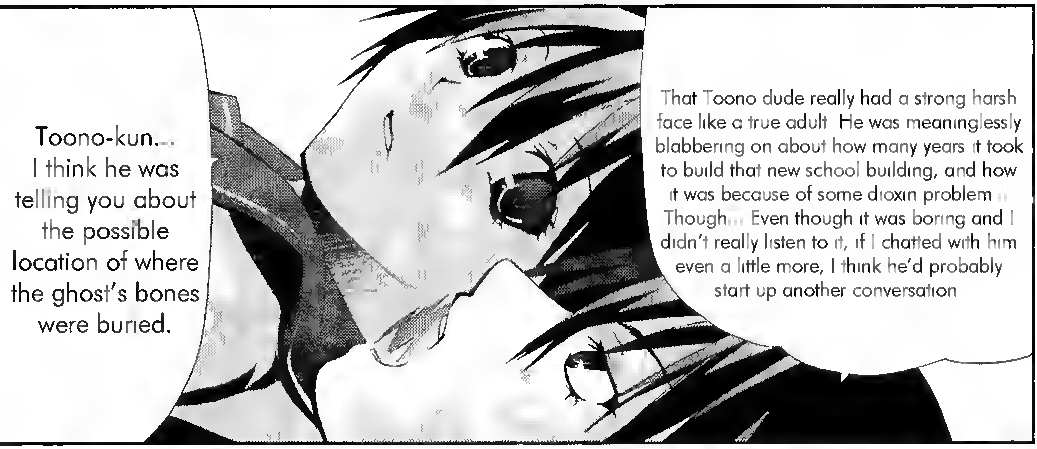
...And not only that, but they would even call out to me...



...Dying before I was born... My bones as well...

...They probably would've become this big, huh...

The cause... Then, that ghost did it all by herself...
Was it because the cat's excrement caused damage to the schoolyard? Did it simply increase too much and thinned out the place? Anyways, for some reason, she died inside the school at some place where we didn't know, and the girl was burned and buried. I'm just saying that this was probably the cause for why she vanished
Say...
...According to what Toono said, those cat bones... How she sometimes fed that cat was really cute. And it was just your ordinary stray cat, also!



Toono-kun... I think he was telling you about the possible location of where the ghost's bones were buried.
That Toono dude really had a strong harsh face like a true adult. He was meaninglessly blabbering on about how many years it took to build that new school building, and how it was because of some dioxin problem... Though... Even though it was boring and I didn't really listen to it, if I chatted with him even a little more, I think he'd probably start up another conversation

Heh. Well, he can do whatever he likes. It looks like that ghost managed to pass away successfully. I think it would be a good idea to just leave this all alone now.

I'm not o ghost. As long os I borrow Moiko's body, I will surely continue on living. I won't just thoughtlessly pass owoy.
It's okay.
If Moito disoppeared, I too would disoppear...
...As we will farever and always be tagether as ane...

This female pupil, in order to be similar to that cat, so she left a will that wanted her bones to be buried into the schoolyard. However, as you would expect, there's a large risk involving the burial of a human being's bones.
The female pupil who disappeared commited suicide on the school premises. Also, there were those who were being tracked down for knowing and being worried about it. That's why they hid and disposed of the dead body
This new school building was constructed 15 years ago. Before, it looked like there used to be tree groves and flower beds in a section of this schoolyard here.
A portion of the bones were smashed, and the ashes were scattered at the base of the flower bed or the tree groves.
All of these are Toono-kun's guesses. You don't have any proof...
Well no, even so, it's not necessarily incorrect. Due to the female pupil's disappearance, two years later at the same approximate time, some male staff also committed suicide.
Suicide isn't uncommon.

And then?
Setting their own home on fire, they burned themselves to death, as well as the car. The point was to carry out destroying all the evidence of the car that transported the body, as well as the location of where the body was disposed of.
That's all.
I think I've lived around death for way too long.
I think the wall collapsed from that small hole because it wasn't being prevented from doing so.
For me, I don't know how the death of the stray cat and the death of the girl are related
Maybe... I think that is wrong though...

Eh?
Why?
A-Ah...
Right...
No matter how anybody else looks at it, for that girl, that stray cat was more than a small hole in her heart.
Well, I'd better get back to the classroom now...

N-No...
Nothing...

Toono-kun, thonk you for soving Moito.
No I do not.
...How about it? Don't you want to try out "Spiritualism," Houdzuki Maika..?
Actually, from now until 13 years ago, female pupils would jump off the rooftop of the new school building... Right now, there isn't any possibility that there will be any injuries, so even if you left it as it is, there wouldn't be an issue, however...

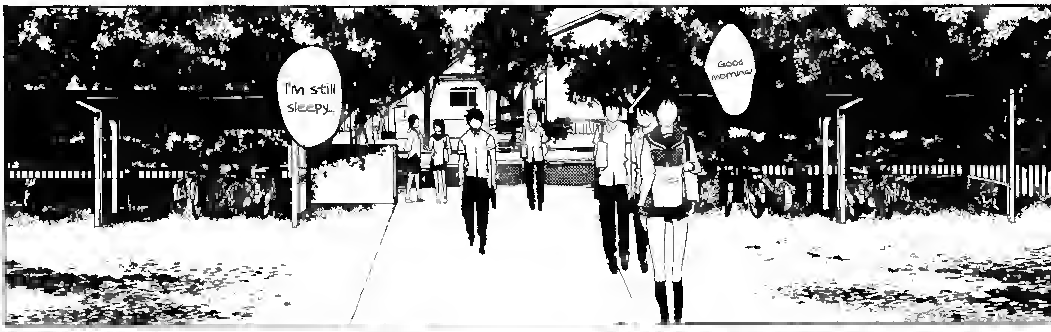
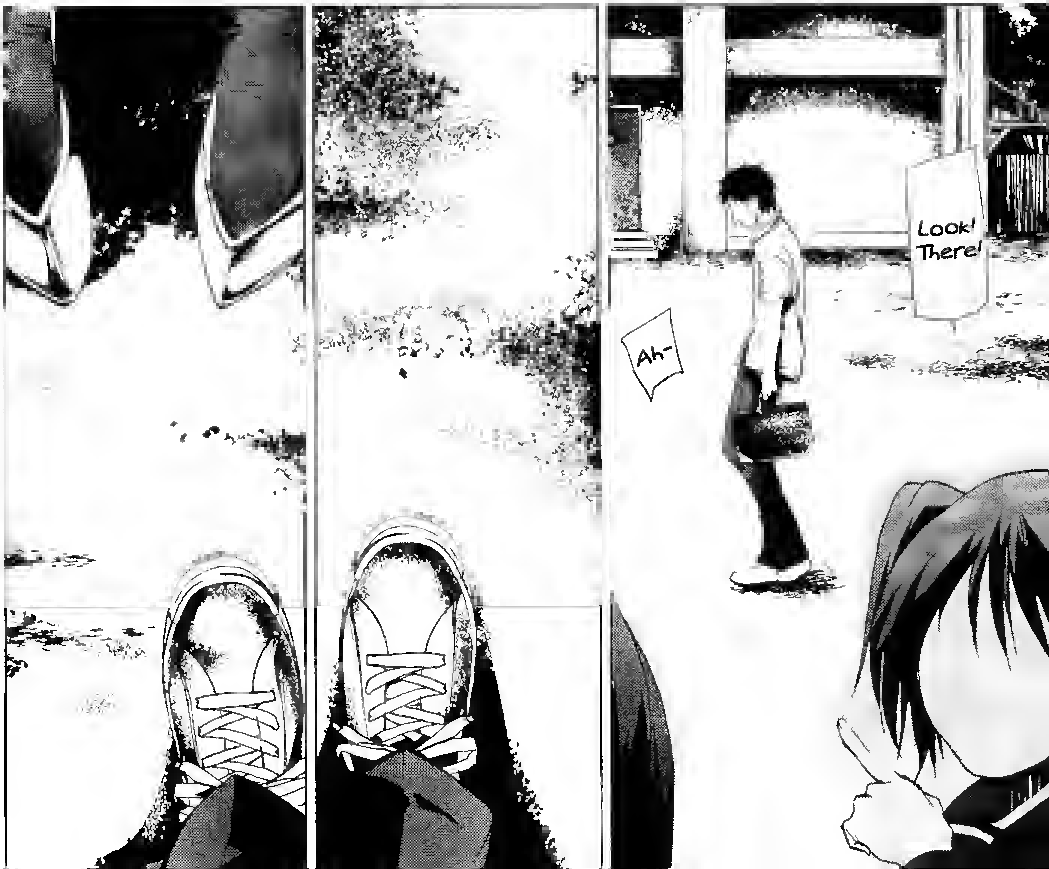
The Second: Shounen Knife ①



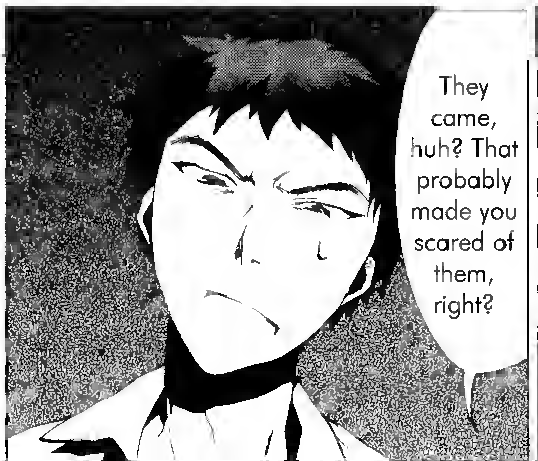
I'm still sleepy..
Good morning!



Look! There!
Ah~

What now?
……
Isn't a little bit okay?
Huh…?
Won't you talk for a little bit with Onii-san?
ぐる
I'm not scary! I'm not scary at all!
ぐる
ぐる

It's okay! I won't do anything! Onii-san is this school's doctor!
ニ…ン…



They came, huh? That probably made you scared of them, right?

Move aside.
Stop it, Jane.
Kuh...!
You're first-year Nakaya Youji-kun, right? Sorry about that. There was somebody who dropped their contact lens around here.

INFIRMARY
I don't know.
With that being said, for what reason was he here .? He was being quite cautious, not saying a thing to me.
There's no data about his elementary school days, but considering the nature of his middle school, I wonder if there were any other particular circumstances? Did he possibly not attend school even earlier than before that? That I don't know.
For that Nakaya, he has a sibling studying abroad overseas who is one year older than him, however... This older brother is the kind of pupil that wouldn't attend school back during his middle school years.
He still hasn't said anything.

Going by the height of that kid... Was he entering elementary school? Was he not? Or even something like that..?
I'm just talking to myself. There's no need to worry about it.
Is it alright if I went back to the classroom already?

Houdzuki...
Could I... sit here..?
Houdzuki...

Eh?
If you want to sit beside me, I don't mind.
A-Ahh...
ガタガタ
Ah...

And are you Toono Kuuya?
You're Houdzuki... Maika, right?...
Ah, erm... This is the first time seeing Houdzuki in the school cafeteria, so. That said...

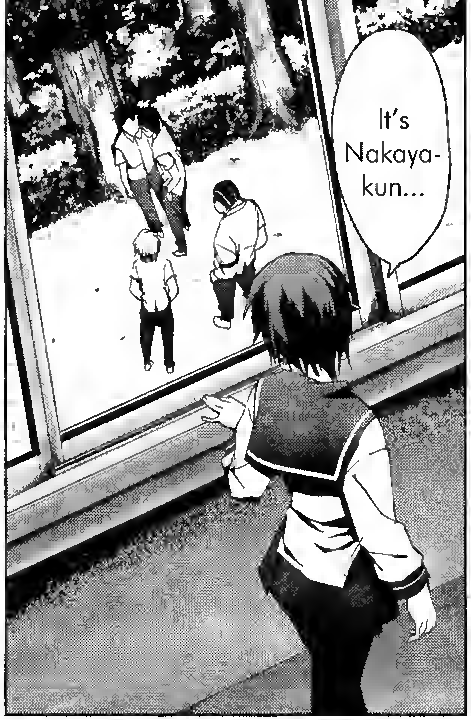
Yooo! Nakaya-kun! What's up? Looks like something's troubling ya. I'm just a senior thinking 'bout his junior! I was just worried about ya, Nakaya-kun! So I figured I'd come consult you about it for that! Say, you know what I mean, don't 'cha?



It's Nakaya-kun...

Anyways, for now, spit it all out man. Tell me. How much you got?

Sendau's already full... And Yashira... Haw abaut the twa af us ga get dressed far aur wanderful lunch?

But...
I didn't get a negative vibe from that ghost though...
...You can't really say that that kid seemed to be involved with any kind of incident...
Hmm... About that ghost kid... That dead child was there around the perimeter of where Nakaya was, wasn't he...
That ghost kid was worried about Nakaya, so he probably wanted to say something to Maika.
And then, so that's why Kanbana got worried about it.
He got into a fight with the other boys in the class and thought he'd just take it out for a bit to show them. The knife was confiscated, and after they called for his father, it all ended.
About that Nakaya himself... Last week... He brought a knife to the classroom to show off..?
No matter what that kid tries to tell me, nothing will change.
For me, I can't help out with anything.

Even though it's just the ghost of a kid, it turns out you really are scared of these things?
Even if they're crying, they're actually smiling.
For the deceased, everybody's outer appearances are all different than their inner feelings
Even if they're smiling, they're actually angry.

It's okoy! Sorry! Up until now, you've been getting tons of these scory thoughts oll by yourself.
Maika no longer has to worry about anything like that anymore.

There's no need to worry about it.

So he's the ghost kid, huh...

The Next Day: Lunch Break
Well I guess what happened yesterday won't happen toda-
Wha... That... No way..!
Well how shameful... You probably tasted success from all that money being passed to you so quickly, huh!

With what just happened yesterday, you probably thought about not coming today, right? Well that's too bad. This society isn't as warm-hearted as Nakayo-kun thinks.
You're wrong! That Nakaya guy... It's called determination!
This is bad! Bad! What should I do? If I bother them while they are extorting money from Nakaya, they'll become a great bother for Maika later on...
Toono!

H-Hey... Houdzuki... Good morning...
It's already lunch break.
Toono-kun, I have something I want to ask of you..!
イラッ
Is that so? Okay, then good afternoon..!
I met Houdzuki in the cafeteria yesterday.
Toono-kun, why?!
You must be Maito today, right?
ピリリリ
……

Wait up! Is there something wrong with it being me?!
Ohh..! Superb! You really figured it out!
It's okay, just come already!
The enemy this time is actually a real-living persan, sa it'll be alright!
These earthworm swells inflicted on me by that ghost have not been able to disappear for over a week!
It's so embarassing, and I haven't been able to even go to my gym lessons! As well, whenever I get into the bath, it soaks in and hurts!

Moiko hos some relotion to this olso.
What kind?
...Why are you getting involved in all of this?
Nokoyo... Ahh... He took out his knife lost week...
Say...
Nakaya's getting his money extorted from him.
A-
I'll explain the situatian to yau later, so just hurry up and get out there!
Ack..!

What?
Who's this guy?
I-It's just an unexpected coincidence! It's just that I haven't checked in with you guys for a while, Sendou-senpai!
Toono, a first-year. We were both juniors together in our middle school's baseball club.
What's this? Aren't you Toono? What's up? You got some business with us?
Ah no... Um... Erm...
Wait.
Yooo! Nakaya! So that's where you were, Nakaya! It's just me you know, Nakaya! Let's go, Nakaya!

Taking advantage af his weaknesses and extarting him with them... Please dan't invalve yaurself with rather shameful behaviaur, senpai.

That shorty over there— What kinda hand-to-hand martial arts is he doing? Toono doesn't seem to stand a chance!

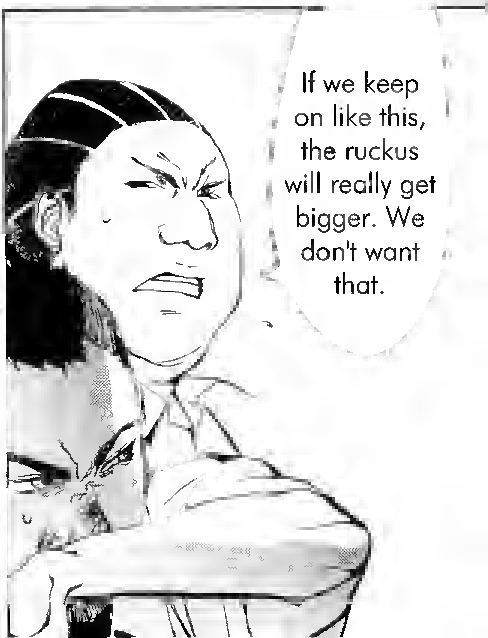
Don't fuck with me!!!

Ahh... Got it.
Yashiro, it's fine already! Let's go!



If we keep on like this, the ruckus will really get bigger. We don't want that.

Ahhhh hhhhhh hh!!!!!!
Nakaya! Stop!!!

Eh?

Yashiro!

Idiots...
Yashiro!
Hurry!!
S-Seri...

Sorry, Maito... I was useless...
Toono! Stay calm! Oi! Toono!
Toonoo oooo!!!
Ah, well I haven't died yet, so...

That Nakaya guy... He's probably okay, right?
Stop crying with a scratch this light. He only cut off a single layer of your skin
A-Ahh hhh!!!
It was rather bad, wasn't it.. If he had not quickly realized that Toono had gotten scarred, I wonder what he would have done out of desperation?
Well no, that was my fault, so...
I knew that it would've been a good idea to have just reported it to the police for them to take over the situation afterwards, right, Toono?
If thot ends up hoppening, he will most likely need to drop out of school os well.
His knife was confiscated last week, yet he took out another one this week and went as far as to actually use it... After this occurence, generally speaking, the consequences of these actions should definitely lead to arrest or confinement.

The homeroom teacher is trying to contact the guy himself now I honestly doubt the teacher will be able to get in touch with his cell phone, so...
...If that doesn't work, then I guess we have no choice but to go out and find him.
ガラ
Nakaya Youji goes to school using a bicycle. I usually drive my sports car, so I don't have to commute as much of a distance as he does.

Ah, yeah... Got it.
I can't imagine him going home, but... First, we should try going to Nakaya's house. Then we will backtrack inbetween from there all the way to the school to search.
If he's riding on a train at some station somewhere, then we've got no choice but to give up.
.....
Don't worry. The head of the police department in this jurisdiction owes quite a lot to me.
That being said, this car is a two-seater, huh...

Toono, this is Maika's precious body. Hold onto it carefully.
A-Ahh... Yeah... Of cours...
TOONO. YOUR DICK IS TURNING HARD.
Ahahahaha!!
Oh you, Toono... It's already going limp!
G-Going limp..!!

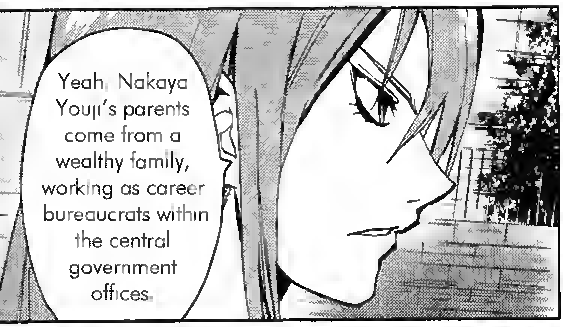
MONOPHOBIA

The Second. Shounen Knife ②



Yeah. Nakaya Youji's parents come from a wealthy family, working as career bureaucrats within the central government offices.

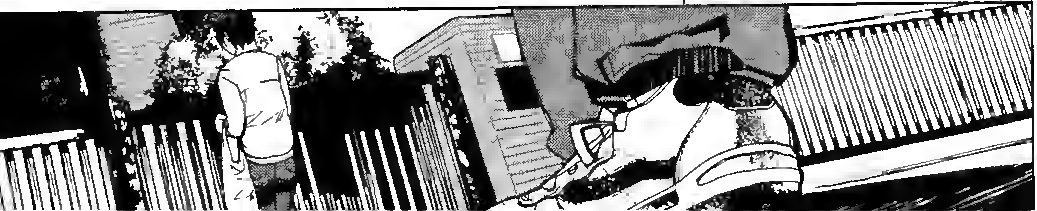
You mean the Ministry of Affairs or the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology?

Looks like the Nakaya family has a lotta money, huh? They managed to avoid being blamed for that knife incident because of their extra contributions, right?
ドロドロ

Ack...! I just saw it earlier!
How did you come up with thot?
That's right.
Yeah.
...Since that older brother who wouldn't attend school could just be pretending that he's studying abroad overseas...
...Yeah, probably...
Hm..? Older brother..?

The Second: Shounen Knife ②

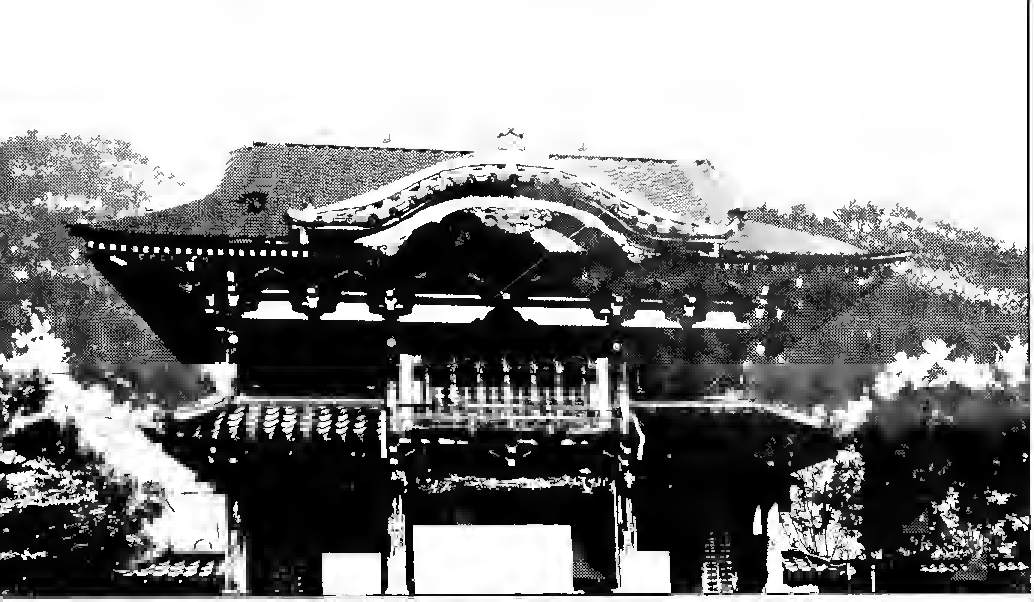
Cooperative Data Collection / The Kenroku Building Lot

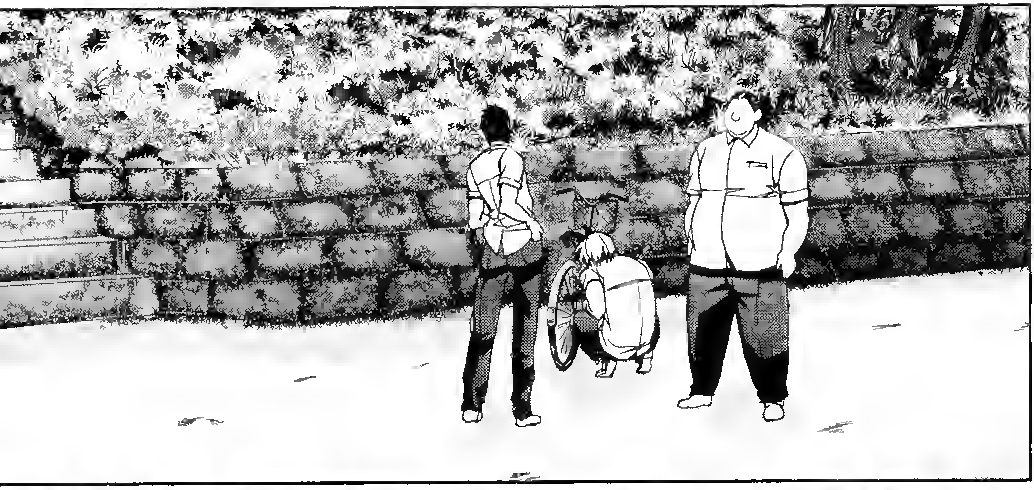


I'm a friend of Nakaya-kun's. I attend the same schaal as he does. My name is Taana
Erm, who might you be?
Excuse me, is this Nakaya Youji-kun's house?
Today was the aptitude test, so the school was closed throughout the morning. It just occurred to me that if he did in fact return early, I wouldn't be able to lend him that book that I had promised him before.
No way... Could it be that Youji-san again...?
That... She was worried that Youji-kun's physical condition may be weakening, so she had him recuperate in his parents' house for a long time...
Is Nakaya-kun's mother coming?
A-Ah... Is that so..? I'm sorry... I completely again...

Is that so... Well I do hope that he can take care of himself somehow...
Moreover, her husband and Youji-san would be the only ones together during the night, so she was worried about that
Although it has been many years, they have never mentioned a word about it, even though they are still parent and child...
...Her husband probably wanted to take care of his eldest brother, Kouichi-san more than his younger brother, Youji-san, though...
Ah...

Ah, of course.
Well anyways, please be good friends with Youji-san from now on also, okay?
...This isn't good... We certainly spent a lot of time chatting, didn't we?
.....
Gee... Thanks a lot...
You must be a reincarnated swindler, huh?
You were making tons of lies just so you could get it done and over with, weren't you, you liar Toono?





Could it be their family temple?
.....
That guy... Why's he at a temple again?
No mistake. This is Nakaya's bike.

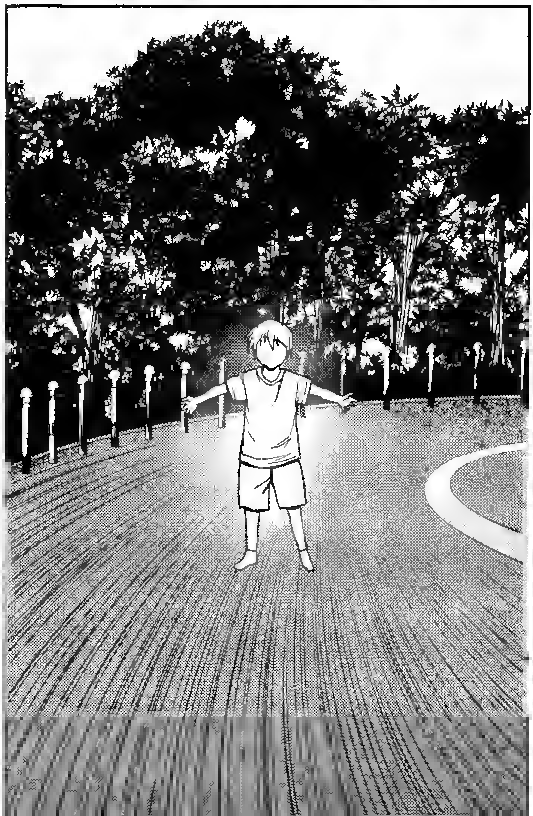
That damn bastard...

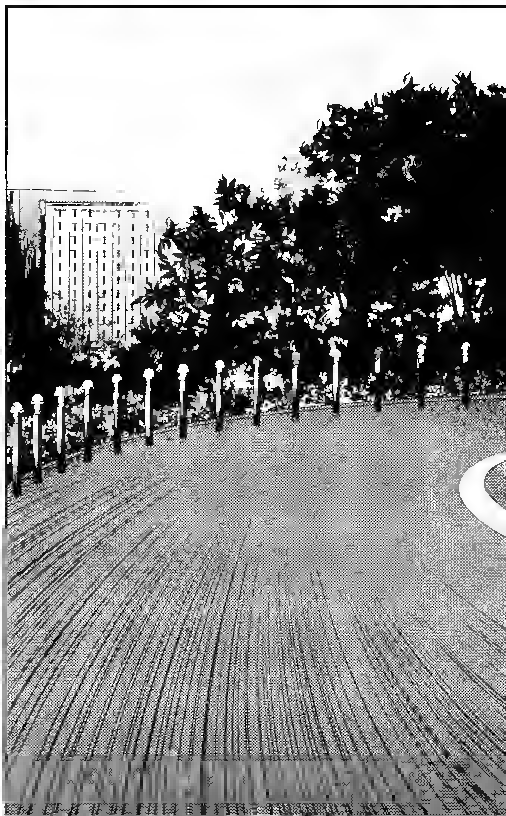
Now then, what's a good location to search?
I knew it. He's probably avoiding any place where people could publically see him, huh!

How is it?
He ain't here...

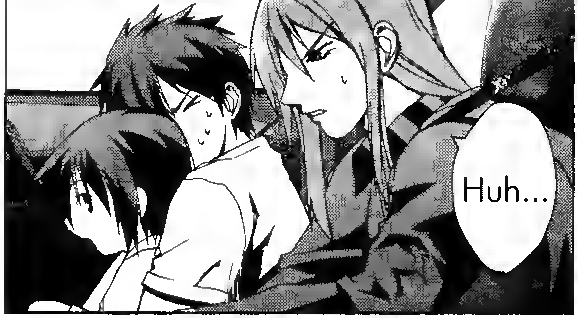
I see.
That's why it might not be necessarily restricted to him being somewhere between the school and his house. I think we should circle around the houses surrounding areas to search.
Just maybe... I think that Nakaya wanted to wait and kill time somewhere while that housekeeper from before finishes her job and returns home
The hillgrounds south from Nakaya's house turn into a forest park, so let's try going there to check

You. You wanted to kill me with that knife earlier, didn't you?
Come, try and cut me again! Next time, you're dead meat!
Just kill me already.

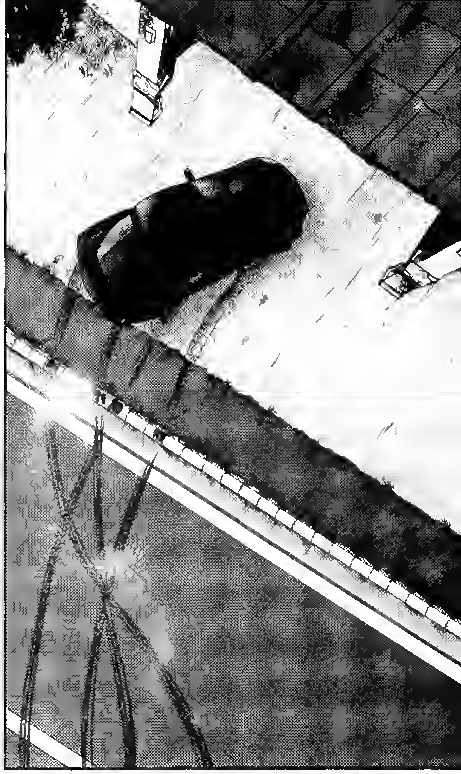




Huh?!
Uwaaa!!



Huh...



Toono... It's okoy olreody...

Somehow, it feels like Nakaya's here.

Huh? Those aren't Sendou-senpai and the others' bicycles, are they....?
Not good!
Maito!!

Don't assume you'll die the easy way.
Guh...
It's a wise choice. Mainly because this guy doesn't get that we're just joking around. If he took out a knife again or something like that, we'd seriously need to kill him.
The heck's this... He doesn't have his knife. How boring.
Gah-

Ookawa!! Behind you!!
Eh?
Augh..!

Ugh...
Well, I wonder.
A girl?

Hahh!!!

ドン
Haugh...
Maito!

It's okay! I'm pretty sure I didn't injure them.
We didn't make it in time...
This... Houdzuki did it, huh...
Er, eh?
I'm sorry...

If you're wondering about me, I'm fine! It was just a scratch!
I didn't intend to cut you, Toono! Really!
I know.
I don't know what happened though.
Trying to wave around your knife in school doesn't solve anything, you know!

Don't think that you're the only one living with problems!

I really...
...thought of it exactly like that.
Houdzuki

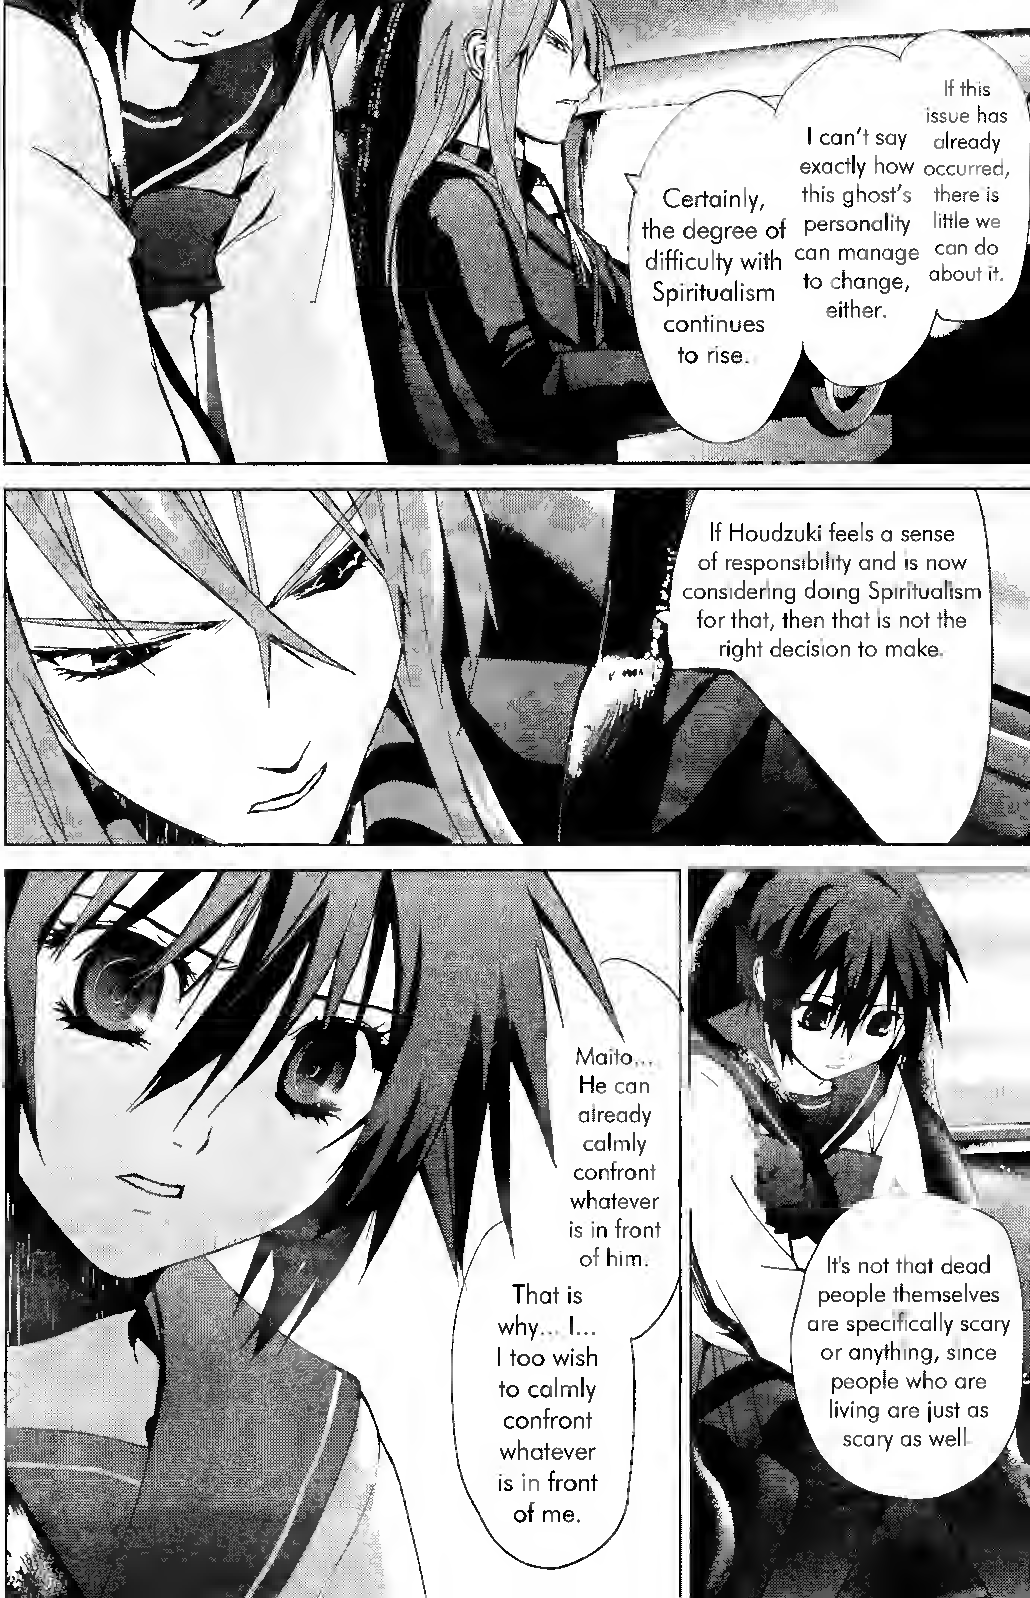
I'm obligated to protect your confidentiality. I promise you that by no means will I do anything that will cause you to be at a disadvantage.
Won't you try telling me everything?
Nakaya Youji.
No...
Nakaya...
Youji...

...I'll try to confront myself first.
I think that's what I need to do now.

The Next Morning

Did you hear?
I heard! I heard!
It's probably Nakaya-kun!
I heard he stabbed his father and ran away!
No way! Seriously?!

This is absolutely a murder!
Didn't he die already?
Wasn't his late father's seriously ill condition just awful?
Ahaha haha!!!
Oh just stop it already!
Nice, Nakaya!
That said, Nakaya and the knife!
Today, in the morning assembly, the headmaster said something and then closed down the school!
Lucky!
Using a knife?
You mean like indiscriminate killing?
If we don't arrest him quickly, it might turn out awful!
That reminds me, Nakaya... He's still on the loose, isn't he!
Scaryyy...
Yeah, with a knife...

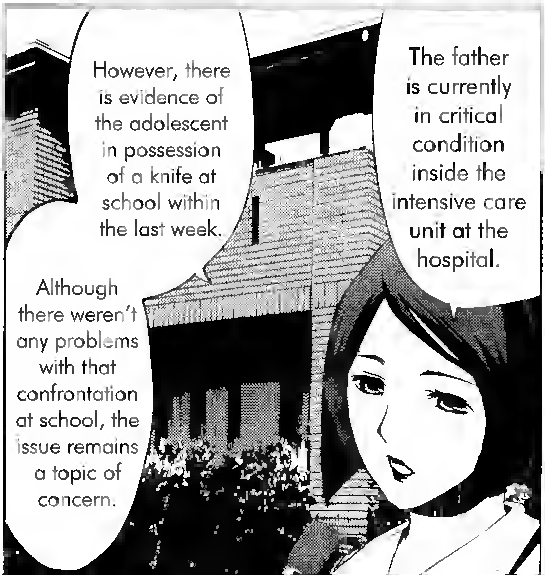


Certainly, the degree of difficulty with Spiritualism continues to rise.
I can't say exactly how this ghost's personality can manage to change, either.
If this issue has already occurred, there is little we can do about it.
If Houdzuki feels a sense of responsibility and is now considering doing Spiritualism for that, then that is not the right decision to make.
Maito... He can already calmly confront whatever is in front of him.
That is why... I... I too wish to calmly confront whatever is in front of me.
It's not that dead people themselves are specifically scary or anything, since people who are living are just as scary as well.

Even though we're going to Nakaya's residence now, if we do encounter that child's ghost a second time, I don't know how it will turn out.
I talked to the head of the police department in this jurisdiction about entering Nakaya's house, and he gave me permission, however... Nakaya Youji's whereabouts are still unknown.
What makes you think that?
That boy is inside Nakaya-kun's home now as well.

Well, that's where he died, so...

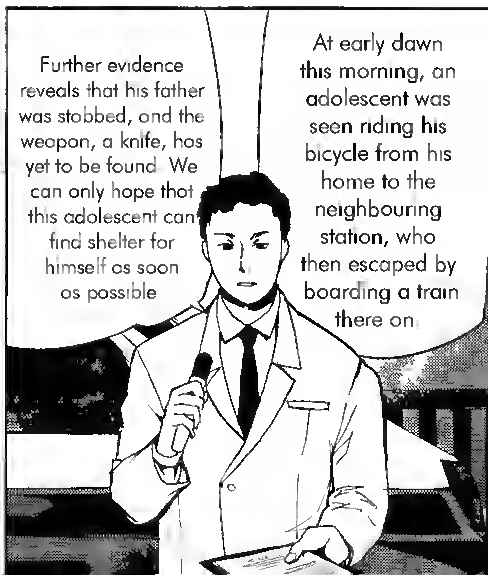
...People who do not accept their own deaths become suspended within time and place.



However, there is evidence of the adolescent in possession of a knife at school within the last week.

The father is currently in critical condition inside the intensive care unit at the hospital.

Although there weren't any problems with that confrontation at school, the issue remains a topic of concern.



Further evidence reveals that his father was stabbed, and the weapon, a knife, has yet to be found. We can only hope that this adolescent can find shelter for himself as soon as possible

At early dawn this morning, an adolescent was seen riding his bicycle from his home to the neighbouring station, who then escaped by boarding a train there on.

I must thank you for all your help again, Iwaisako-san.
And sorry about everything, there are tons of television people out in the front, so...
Please watch your step.
The back door of the house is right there, so please go inside. I'll hand the keys over to you
Just where are we within these groves of trees...
Okay then, I will be on standby in my car, so...
...If anything unexpected happens, please contact my cell.
Thank you. Please give my regards to the head of the police department.

I didn't bother with aligning all pages this time because I don't really think most people care anyway. –Sayori

I love how Maito uses Kansai-ben いいやね～

For those wondering, in the first few pages, Maito talks about a fight involving Komura and Hisono. These two are currently genderless, so I made guesses on which gender they were to the best of my ability. If these two people are introduced later on and my guesses for the genders were incorrect, I will re-do this chapter. But for the sake of these two, I don't think they're ever going to appear again.

Yes, I have been informed of some other anonymous translator who did the first chapter of Tsuki no MONOPHOBIA. I didn't look at it, except for that web page thing the person added on, which was an interesting read. So I basically translated it entirely by myself fresh.

Sayon Forever

Translatian Notes:

Now there are some questions people might ask I at first didn't catch it, nor did my proofreaders So I'll explain them to you now that I figured them out

Page 3: Maito says "Houdzuki" even though you know that both Maika and Maito are both from the same family Well he's just talking in some wacky third-person here And Maito meant the smile from the last panel on page 4

Page 30 In this series (I guess), Hanbana is referring to how Spiritualists help 'cover the holes" of evil spirits who are emotionally disturbed Holes does NOT refer to a literal "hole in the ground " It's more a hole in one's heart

Page 65 Maito talks about 'the cat's excrement" causing damage to the schoolyard Basically, he was referring to the build-up of all that cat crap, and how the toxins (or dioxins as he says) would slowly but surely pollute and "thin" out the plants and whatnot For example, when you over-fertilize grass, it dies and turns yellow That's basically it

Page 69-70 Toono (not Maika, it's hard to see, but it's Toono's pants) says, "I think I've lived around death for way too long " He's referring to actual IRL death occurances Directly right after, he says, "I think the wall collapsed from that small hole because it wasn't being prevented from doing so " He is referring to the evil spirit that he and Maito encountered, and how even though it was just a stray cat, the wall protecting that hole in her heart eventually broke down and caused her to become this way And on page 70 Toono is thinking of the evil spirit, not really Maika

Translation Notes:

Now that I have finished translating Part 2, I have made many corrections in Part 1 which were originally posed as questionable translations. Thus, I rewrote this note entirely. Most of the issues were with Pages 94 and 95, but as they are now fixed, they've been removed.

Page 80: You might've been a bit confused about when Kanbana talked about Nakaya in the first bubble. I tried my best to make it less vague, but there still needs to be a TL note for it. Basically, he's talking about the ghost kid right now, but referring to Youji, which was the guy you saw a bit earlier. Nakaya is just both of their surnames.

Page 94: In the last panel, the bully talks about how Nakaya's savouring his success. This was a point brought out of completely nowhere. When you read Part 2 later, you will find out that Nakaya is from a very wealthy family.
